

John Dooley is a Central Ohio native and graduated from Columbus Alternative High School. He received a bachelor degree from The Ohio State University. John is a licensed barber and has worked in the Columbus community for over 25 years.

John is a committed member of Columbus Christian Center Church for over 25 years where he met his wife of 20 years Heidi and is the father of one daughter and two sons.

John believes educating children with a kingdom world view is absolutely vital. In 2023 he ran for a school board seat in the Gahanna-Jefferson community.

He currently serves in the Kid City children's ministry and as a member of the board of directors for Crown Preparatory Academy.