

April Hunter

April Hunter is a Speech Language Pathologist with a local school district in the Columbus area as well as the founder and clinic director of a pediatric private practice. She has over two decades of experience working in special education and serving students and families with communication disorders, learning disabilities and autism. April is passionate about literacy and language development and committed to a lifelong pursuit of educational and professional growth.

April earned her Bachelor of Science in Communication Disorders from Bowling Green State University. She earned her Masters of Art in Speech Language Pathology from The Ohio State University.

April is a member of the Board of Directors for Crown Preparatory Academy in Columbus, Ohio. She has been a member of Columbus Christian Center Church since 2002.

She enjoys exploring new recipes and cooking for her husband and two sons.