

BIOGRAPHY OF Ruth Edmonds

Ruth Edmonds
Minister, Director

Ruth Edmonds is the Church Relations Director at Center for Christian Virtue (CCV) where she heads the organizations' ministry to pastors and church congregations through the Church Ambassador Network (CAN).

Ruth is a leadership professional with over 20 years of experience in Community Relations marked by a network of government, non-profit, and faith-based stakeholder relationships, with specialization in building partnership collaborations, facilitating dynamic group conversations, and public speaking presentations.

Ruth has served as a key aide to elected public officials on the federal, state and county levels. She is recognized as an articulate communicator, connector, thought leader, encourager and most significantly, a prayer warrior.

In 2019 Ruth was licensed and ordained as a minister in the Christian church by her pastor Dr. David C. Forbes, Jr. of Columbus Christian Center.

Ruth is a graduate of Denison University in Granville, Ohio and lives in the greater Columbus area with her husband, a high school urban educator. She is the blessed mother of two adult daughters who are successful in their own right.
